H. Frey, price 35

This selection is for the Mandolin, Guitar and Piano, is also suitable for Mandolin, without Guitar part. It is written in key of C, with relative changes.

- 438 Garden City Grand March.
By R. J. Hamilton price 75

This number is published for Banjo and Piano, with a part for second Banjo, to be used if desired. It is also a good duet for Banjos, without the Piano part. In key of A, with relative changes.

- 439 Monarch Reel. By R. J.
Hamilton. For the Banjo and Piano.
Price 25

This is a very good reel. It is in the key of A major, with relative minor. This number has no part for second banjo.

- 440 The Ardmore Mazourka. By
E. H. Frey price 35

This composition is the same as No. 374 in our catalogue, except that it is a new arrangement for the Banjo, Mandolin and Guitar. A most excellent concert piece. Always played with success.

- 441 "Little Darling," Schottische. By M. J. Catlin. For the Banjo and Piano price 35
A very pretty schottische, in A and E.

- 442 "The Coon's Picnic,"
(Minor Jig.) By Hamilton, price 60
A nice "A minor" Jig.

- 443 Bella Bocca Polka, (Waldteufel.) Arranged for "banjo club"
by Thos. J. Armstrong . . . price 1 00

This number is arranged in five parts; first and second Banjos, Guitar, Banjeaurine and Piccolo Banjo. May double any of the parts if desired.

- 444 "In Wild Haste," Galop.
(Faust.) Arranged for "banjo club"
by Thos. J. Armstrong . . . price 1 00

There are five parts, same as No. 443. The Philadelphia Banjo Club use six instruments in playing these numbers. The Banjeaurine which plays the leading part, is doubled, there being two Banjeaurine players.

- 445 Vernon March. By Grant
Brower price 50

This March has been played by the composer as a concert piece and has become quite popular. It is here published for the Banjo and Piano.
